

Wednesday 23 September: 9.30 –16.30

9.30-10.00 : Registration and coffee

10.00-10.20: Opening speeches

Chairperson: Mr Tom Togsverd, Director General of DI ITEK

Mr Jørgen Abild Andersen
Director General for the National IT and Telecom Agency

H. E. Bérengère Quincy
French Ambassador in Denmark

10.20-11.30: Keynote speeches

Chairperson: Mr Tom Togsverd, Director General of DI ITEK

Mr Bernard Benhamou
Delegate on Internet Usage,
French Ministry of Research and Higher Education,
State Secretariat for the Development of Digital Economy
The European perspective & strategy on the Internet of the future

Mr Gus Hosein
Policy Director at Privacy International,
Advisor to the American Civil Liberties Union and Visiting Senior Fellow at the London School
Beware! The Future is Promising: the Dynamics of Privacy Debates

11.30-11.50: Coffee break

11.50-12.30: Privacy from a vendor point of view

Chairperson: Mr Mads Tofte, Rector of the IT-University of Copenhagen

Ms Gabrielle Gauthey

Senior Vice President in charge of Public Affairs for Alcatel-Lucent

Next generation trust on line

Mr Caspar Bowden

Chief Privacy Adviser, Microsoft Europe, Middle-East and Africa

Privacy technology can do more than you think

12.30-13.30: Lunch

13.30-14.50: First session "Mutation of privacy" (first panel)

Chairperson: Mr Mads Tofte, Rector of the IT-University of Copenhagen

Mr Pierre-Jean Benghozi

Research Director at the French National Centre for Scientific Research (CNRS)

The ICT Paradox : Privacy vs. Performance

Ms Karin Riis-Jørgensen

Chairwoman of the European Privacy Association, Former Member of the European Parliament

Privacy on the Internet

Mr André Laperrière

Director General of the Global Trust Council

Privacy, human rights and interoperability

14.50-15.10: Coffee break

15.10-16.30: First session "Mutation of privacy" (second panel)

Chairperson: Mr Mads Tofte, Rector of the IT-University of Copenhagen

Mr Niels Elgaard Larsen

Head of IT-Political Association of Denmark (IT-pol.dk),
Developer Ange Optimization

Privacy for the few

Ms Camilla Hersom

President of the Danish Consumer Council, Member of the IKT Council

Privacy – not only for the few

Mr Kai Rannenberg

Mobile Business & Multilateral Security,
Goethe-University, Frankfurt

Privacy in a world of ambient and personalized ICT Services

End of the first day

Thursday 24 September: 8.30-16.30

8.30-9.00: Registration and coffee

9.00-10.20: Second session "Trust in new technologies" (first panel)

Chairperson: Mr Flemming Faber, Senior Adviser, National IT and Telecom Agency, Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation

Ms Pia Jespersen

Special consultant at Digital Health, ESL (security manager), CISM

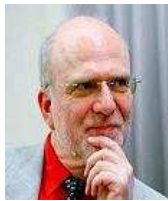

Health Care – Challenges for Information Security and Privacy

Mr Michel Arnaud

Professor at Paris Nanterre University, Head of the laboratory on electronic knowledge industries (CRIS)

Trusted third party as a key actor for privacy protection in e-ticketing

Mr Achim Klabunde

Policy officer in the European Commission's Directorate General for Information Society and Media- Leader of the team in charge of privacy and information security policy for electronic communications

Privacy and trust on the net - an EU perspective

10.20-10.40: Coffee break

10.40-12.00: Second session "Trust in new technologies" (second panel)

Chairperson: Mr Flemming Faber, Senior Adviser, National IT and Telecom Agency, Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation

Mr Jakob Illeborg Pagter

Head of Research and Innovation at the Alexandra Institute Centre for IT Security

Secure Multiparty Computation - a technology with promises for privacy

Mr Daniel Le Métayer

Research Director in INRIA (the French National Institute for Research in Computer Science and Control), and head of the new initiative LICIT ("Legal Issues in Communication and Information Technologies")

Privacy by design: technical, legal and political issues

Ms Lena Andersen

Deputy Commissioner in the Danish Data Protection Agency, member of the Europol, Schengen and Customs Joint Supervisory Authorities

An update on current status from the Danish Data Protection Agency

12.00-13.00: Lunch

13.00-14.20: Third session "Privacy versus security": from conflict to alliance?" (first panel)

Chairperson: Ms Birgitte Kofod Olsen, Human Rights Advisor, PhD, board member in European Privacy Association

Mr Saadi Lahlou

Professor, Director of the Institute of Social Psychology, London School of Economics and Political Science, London & Membre Associé, Centre Edgar Morin, CNRS-EHESS, Paris

Life-logging and the Privacy dilemma

Mr David Basin

Chair for Information Security at the Department of Computer Science, ETH Zurich

Data Protection: From Policies to Mechanisms

Mr Stephan Engberg

Founder and CEO of Priway, lecturer at Copenhagen Business School and at the Danish IT University

Making the Net forget

14.20-14.40: Coffee break

14.40-16.00: Third session "Privacy versus security: from conflict to alliance?" (second panel)

Chairperson: Ms Birgitte Kofod Olsen, Human Rights Advisor, PhD, board member in European Privacy Association

Mr Mark Klamberg

Doctoral Candidate in Public International Law at the Faculty of Law (Stockholm University)

Surveillance of communication by the National Defence Radio Establishment (FRA)

Mr Max Senges

Chairman of the Internet Rights and Principles Coalition (an Internet Governance Forum multi-stakeholder group)

Standardized Human Readable Privacy Policies: a market based approach to promote rights online as a quality differentiator

Mr Dieter Gollmann

Professor, Chair for Security in Distributed Applications, Hamburg University of Technology

Paradigms Found

16.00-16.30: Closing remarks

Chairperson: Ms Birgitte Kofod Olsen, Human Rights Advisor, PhD, board member in European Privacy Association

Mr Georg Apenes

Director of the Norwegian Data Inspectorate, awarded the Rosing Academy's Honorary Award by The Norwegian Computer Society